

NASSIB I. GHOBRIIL, Chief Economist- Head of the Economic Research and Analysis Department and | Byblos Bank

Nassib Ghobril is the Chief Economist and Head of the Economic Research and Analysis Department at Byblos Bank S.A.L., one of Lebanon's largest banking and financial services groups. Previously, he was Head of Research at Groupe Saradar, and Head of Research at investment banking firm Lebanon Invest. Before returning to Lebanon, he worked in the United States in the research and consulting fields.

Mr. Ghobril has built from the ground up economic research departments at both Byblos Bank and Groupe Saradar. He is a frequent guest speaker at local, regional and international conferences as well as at universities, business, and civic organizations. Additionally, he appears regularly on local, pan-Arab and international television networks. He has also been quoted by The Financial Times, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, The International Herald Tribune, Bloomberg, Thomson Reuters, as well as other local and international media outlets.

He is a member of the World Economic Association, a member of the Research and Studies Committee at the Association of Banks in Lebanon, a Founding Board Member of the Institute of Directors, a member of the Advisory Board of the Lebanese American University's School of Business, and a Board Member of the Levant Institute for Strategic Affairs. In addition, he is a Board Member of several civic and charitable organizations.

He is the recipient of several awards that include the World Lebanese League's award for "Best Economist in Lebanon and the Diaspora for 2009"; the award for "Most Innovative Research in 2012" in recognition of the design and launch of the Byblos Bank/AUB Consumer Confidence Index; and the "2013 Excellence in Economic Research Award".